Hmmm ... not a Fabergpaste.tiff ↵ you say ?

Well, for those who may prefer more traditional contents, here's an alternate .opendir for which you might want to fabricate your own interior (or just use as is):

A LITTLE RIDDLE

I'm not boasting, but there's a `hidden' image in this posting Don't be furious, but for the mildly curious won't you be miffed
 not to find the mystery tiff
To the leerious*
 I'll be quite serious ... things are not always as they appear You must use your eyes to gauge the size
Be sure to search high and low
 ... but don't be slow
For a golden egg will be the prize ! **

to the first that finds it and describes it

* A little poetic license there

 Please allow up to 4 to 6 weeks for delivery

Oooo ... lousy poem, but I just love a good riddle !

(There really are four Tiffs in this posting)
