

In case you care about such things (I know I always find it interesting), here's some images related to the folks that brought you WavesWorld.

Here's me with WavesWorld's official ArtDirectrix and arbiter of good taste, my long suffering fiancée Elizabeth Glenewinkel:

Wave&EG.jpeg5.tiff ↵

Here's my latest office, with my two HPs visible (my other machines are behind me and to the left...):

image06.tiff ↵

Here's two shots of my old office at the MIT Media Lab that actually catch the feeling of the space a bit better:

office1JPEG.tiff ↵ office2JPeg.tiff ↵

For those of you who've never been to Cambridge, MA and seen the Media Lab here at MIT, where I've been hacking for the last six years, here's a picture of it from the street:

mediaLabJpeg.tiff ↵

Several of these images were taken from PhotoCD (the second was snapped with an Apple QuickTake camera), so I could obviously have shown much higher quality ones, but I figure 75K was about the limit of people's patience for such frippery as this...