

Valentina Tereshkova was the first woman in space. She joined a Soviet training program in 1961 and in 1963 she successfully orbited the earth 48 times in the Vostok 6.