

Shoot Em All is a 3D capture the flag game where the objective is to capture each red flag in order to reach the next level. Massive groups of armed men may be surrounding you in order to protect their flag. You can mow down an entire group with your rapid fire machine gun. You may only have a small opportunity to take the flag after you take out all the guards.

Movement

Place the arrow at the edge of the window on the direction you wish to face or move.
