

St Columba's church stands on the site of the original monastery. The church houses a facsimile of the Book of Kells and an exhibition on the history of the site. Four of the High Crosses of Kells, the south Cross, the West or Broken Cross, the East or Unfinished Cross, and the North Cross are located on the grounds of St Columba's church.