Tektonix Software

Firstly, thanks for trying out one of our programs.   We are sure you will be pleased with it.

This help file goes to address any questions you may have about Tektonix Software and our programs.

Shareware

Our programs are free to use only on a trial basis.   Seeing as many hours of development time has gone into each one you are obliged to pay a small registration fee if you continue to use it for more than the trial period of 21 days. This concept is known as Shareware.

Disclaimer

Trouble Shooting

Our programs need the Visual Basic 4.0/32 run-time libraries in order to operate correctly.   You may encounter problems if you don't have them.   The trouble shooting section of our web page contains information about where to go to get them.
