Welcome To Random Thoughts!

Random Thoughts is a collection of three separate programs for Windows 95 or Windows 3.1x.

Random Thoughts Screen Saver

Random Thoughts Viewer (retail version only)

Random Thoughts Message Minder (retail version only)

Registration Information - How do I purchase the retail version?

Both programs use the same data files (modules) which are a collection of well over 1,000 quotes (200 for evaluation/shareware version) from   both classic and contemporary sources including: Entertainers; Politicians; Poets; Philosophers; Sports Heroes; etc.

Random Thoughts Screen Saver

Random Thoughts Screen Saver: Quotes is a unique screen saver that scrolls random quotes across your screen.

The user can configure the screen saver in many ways including: Setting the foreground and background colors; Setting font type, size, and attributes; Control scrolling speed; Text can be scrolled across center of screen or at random positions; Select from 2 different modules of quotes (Humor or Classic). Provides password protection and a "note" feature that allows you to leave a user-defined message on your screen for anyone who passes by (retail version only). An example for the office would be, "Gone to lunch. Be back at 1 PM.", or for home, "Do your homework before you play DOOM!".

Installing Random Thoughts Screen Saver

Random Thoughts Viewer (retail version only)

The Random Thoughts Viewer allows you to cycle through the quotes using the Goto First, Next, Previous, Last, and Get Random commands. Quotes can be saved to the Clipboard for insertion into other documents and they may be printed from within the viewer. The viewer may be placed in the Windows StartUp group to give you a "quote a day".

Creating A "Quote A Day" - Adding the Random Thoughts Viewer to the StartUp Group

Random Thoughts Message Minder (retail version only)

The Message Minder program runs as an icon on your Desktop. Its purpose is to allow you to quickly set, change, or turn on/off the message feature of the Random Thoughts Screen Saver. Normally, you would have to go into Control Panel, Desktop, Settings to make a change. The Message Minder allows you to do this on the spur of the moment, no matter what program you are currently working in.

The Message Minder works best when copied to your StartUp group so it is always available. You have this option presented to you during installation. To setup the program in your StartUp group after installation, follow the same steps as described in the Creating A Quote A Day section. Just replace filename RT_01V10.EXE with filename RT_MMV10.EXE.
