The significant problems we face cannot be solved at the same level of thinking we were at when we created them. [Einstein]

Three can keep a secret if two are dead.

The corn is never declared innocent in the court of chickens.

Money is the root of all wealth.

The moon may be smaller than Earth, but it's further away.

Before you attempt to set things right, make sure you see things right.

A mind, once stretched by a new idea, never regains its original dimension.

Truth without a veil is always uninteresting to the human mind.

Always remove the last screw first.

Experience varies directly with the amount of equipment ruined.

Quality is not act, it is a habit. [Aristotle]

To study a subject best, understand it thoroughly before you start.

Don't just believe in miracles: rely on them.

People only see what they are prepared to see. [Emerson]

We make a living by what we get, we make a life by what we give. [Churchill]

Time is just nature's way of keeping everything from happening at once.

All problems look simpler once solved.

It is impossible to make anything foolproof: fools are too ingenious.

A conclusion is simply the place where you got tired of thinking.

Wisdom is knowing when to avoid perfection.

Don't let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do.

If you visualize the wrong thing, you'll produce the wrong thing.

If the groundhog sees its shadow, another six weeks of winter are in store.

There is nothing like the prospect of a lot of money to fog otherwise intelligent minds. [Shaw]

Over a bent tree all the goats jump.

When we pick up one end of the stick, we pick up the other.

Misbelief alone misleads. Singlemindedness always leads to the goal.

A good beginning is the job half done.

To treat every human being as a shrine is to fulfill all religion.
