

PAC-GUY: ATOMIC EDITION

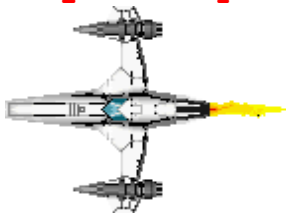

Pac Guy fights back!

Story: Pac-Guy is returning to his home town for some much needed rest when suddenly his arch nemesis Kan's ship appears and nukes Pac-Guy's city, destroying everything Pac-Guy once held dear. Now Pac-Guy must retrace his steps as he tracks Kan. The enemies Pac-Guy fought so long ago have become more powerful due to Kan's meddling, but thankfully Pac-Guy now has a big new gun.

Gameplay: Essentially the same as the first Pac-Guy. Travel from level to level getting all the pellets and collect special ammo pellets to shoot at the nasties that constantly harass you. Running into a nasty, or some other dangerous thing, subtracts one from your lives. Lose all lives and you get thrown back a level. Get 1000 points and you get an extra life. Press F8 to bring up or hide the game's menu.
