

Uses existing account information to quickly register this product. Use this option only if you have previously registered a product using the step-by-step registration wizard.

Goes through the registration process step-by-step. If you have not previously registered a product, you must use this option.

Select the country from which you are registering the product, if different from the country shown.

Select this check box if your computer is set up to run in a country other than the one you are registering from, then select the country from the list.

Select the name of the country in which your computer is set up to run, if different from the country in which you are registering the product. Clear the check box if the country is the same.

Opens a dialog box with detailed information on Symantec's privacy policy and options you select to specify how we should contact you.

Because you are on the first panel of the wizard, this button is inactive.

Adds you to our mailing list about new products and events. Clear this check box to remove your name from the mailing list.

Provides telephone verification from Symantec of your on-line orders. Clear this check box if you do not want this service.

Blocks email other than requested bulletins to which you have specifically subscribed. Clear this check box to receive other product information.

Provides more information about available bulletins and how to subscribe. To continue registering, you must return to this window and click OK or Cancel.

Connects to the Symantec website where you can find more information about Symantec products and how to contact us. To continue registering, you must return to this window and click OK or Cancel.

Saves your selections, closes this panel, and returns you to the first registration panel.

Closes this panel without saving any selections you made and returns you to the first registration panel.

Signs you up for LiveAdvisor services. To use LiveAdvisor, you must have an Internet Service Provider. Clear this check box if you do not want to use LiveAdvisor.

Opens the LiveAdvisor Options panel where you specify when and how LiveAdvisor should inform you about new messages.

If LiveAdvisor is active, it displays this icon in your system tray when it has new information.

Enter your preferred title or select one from the drop-down list. This field is optional.

Enter your first name. This field is required.

Enter your last name. This field is required.

Select this option to indicate that the product is to be registered to you as an individual.

Select this option to indicate that the product is to be registered to your company in your name.

If the product is to be registered to your company, you must enter the company name here.

Enter your job title. This field is optional.

The pronunciation of your last name {{Japan only field}}

The pronunciation of your first name {{Japan only field}}

Select Home or Work to tell us whether you are providing your home or work address.

Enter the address at which you want us to contact you. You may not need both lines to enter your address.

Enter the name of your city or town.

Enter the two-character abbreviation of your state.

Enter your Zip code.

Enter the area code and telephone number at which you want to be contacted. Use hyphens to separate the different parts of the phone number.

Enter the complete e-mail address at which you want to be contacted. Use the form: your email name@Internet service provider.

Enter the name of your province or county. {{non-US only field}}

Enter your postal code. {{Non-US only field}}

Postal code {{Japan only field}}

Prefecture {{Japan only field}}

City {{Japan only field}}

Returns to the previous survey question if you want to review or change your answer.

Continues to the next survey question.

Answer this survey question by clicking the button below and selecting an answer from the list of choices.

Opens a list from which you select an answer to this survey question.

Continues to the next registration panel. Click when you are done with the survey or to skip the survey.

Clear the check box if you do not want to register the product at this time. Select the check box to register a product. By default, all unregistered products are selected.

Select how you want to send in your registration. The selection is made automatically if only one option is available or you are using LiveAdvisor.

Opens the control panel displaying the settings for the method of registering you have selected.

Opens a list of the information to be sent for registration. Although most of the information listed is required to register, you can prevent certain information from being set if you choose.

Displays the progress of the registration transmission once you have clicked Send.

Indicates that the registration is being sent.

Displays the status of the connection if you are registering over the Internet.

Provides details about how your information will be securely transmitted over the Internet.

Sends the registration information in the manner you requested. You cannot cancel the electronic transmission once you have clicked Send.

Shows the information that will be sent for registration. Fields with active check boxes can be cleared to prevent that information from being sent. Information marked by dimmed check boxes is required and must be sent to complete your registration.

Closes the dialog box and returns you to the Progress panel.

To change any of the information displayed in the Preview panel, use the Back button on the Progress panel to go to the information you want to change.

Saves the information displayed to a location of your choosing. You may want to save a backup copy of your registration information.

Lists all the Symantec products you have registered with us, along with their serial numbers. This information is also available in LiveAdvisor.

Prints the list of registered products and serial numbers shown above.

Because registration is complete, this button is inactive.

Ends the registration process and closes the wizard.

Because registration is complete, this button is inactive.

Select this option to use the account information you just entered for quick registration the next time you need to register a Symantec product.

Select this option to go through the registration process step-by-step the next time you need to register a Symantec product.

Select the check box if you do not want to be reminded of rapid registration in the future.

Registers this product with the Register to: information shown. If the information is not correct, click Modify to make changes.

Displays your customer profile for verification or modification.

Switches the wizard to walk you through step-by-step registration.

This information is what is currently in your customer profile. To change it, click Modify.

Closes the Rapid Registration wizard automatically when the registration transmission is complete. Clear this check box to return to this wizard after transmission.

If Cancel, cancels registration and closes the wizard. If Close, closes the wizard after registration is complete.

Continues to the next panel in the registration process.

Cancels the registration process and closes this wizard.

Returns to the previous panel in the registration process.

