

EQUANT CompuServe's partnership with Equant International Telecommunications Services, Inc. provides asynchronous dial-up network access worldwide at speeds of 1200-28,800 bps.

ACCESS INSTRUCTIONS 1. Establish a phone connection by dialing the nearest EQUANT network access number which are listed under the access number menu option.

2. Once the connection is made, type: . i.e. period followed by a Carriage Return 3. Your screen will show: SITA NETWORK: 2431 020 4. You type: NUI 19730001 5. Your screen shows: SITA NETWORK: password 6. You type: KHS9NE (Note: the password will not echo to your screen as you enter it) 7. Your screen shows: SITA NETWORK: network user identifier 19730001 active 8. You type: 2111855 9. You will then be connected to CompuServe's network and the CompuServe's Host Name: prompt will appear on your screen: Host Name: At this point, enter CIS followed by a carriage return () after which you will see the User ID prompt. Enter your User ID and log on as usual.

Logging Off EQUANT's network: 1. Type OFF at any ! prompt online to disconnect from the service. After logging off, your screen shows: Host Name: 2. You type: OFF At which point you will be disconnected from CompuServe's network. You will also automatically be disconnected from EQUANT's network.