

We are pleased to present you with the first online miniature golf simulation. This user-friendly gaming environment will allow you to compete fiercely and communicate with fellow networked players the world over. So grab a club and a ball from the club house and head for the golf course! The aim of the game is simple to get the ball into the various holes in as few shots as possible. As you work your way over the ten-hole course, the numerous cartoon graphics and top-quality sound effects guarantee you piles of fun.

Strong Points

Suitable for the whole family and very easy to play

High-level of interaction between players, chat possibilities throughout the game

Use of "permanent connection technology" allowing players to connect or disconnect at any time during the game