International Tennis Open is one of Infogames' software hits of the last two years and has been receiving renewed interest since its adaptation to online game-play.

Besides the qualities that have made it a tennis sim must (graphics, game options, atmosphere, realism, etc.), anyone connected to the network throughout the entire world can now compete in spirited games on all kinds of surfaces.   Whether you're looking for a simple match or a tournament involving up to 128 players, re-string your racket and put on your cap, 'cos cyber-tennis awaits...
