

Step 1: general properties

Width : The applet width (pixels).

Height : The applet height (pixels).

Background color : The applet background color.

Background image : The background image (usually automatically centered).

No Java message : This message will be displayed if Java(tm) is not enabled on the user browser.

On load sound : The location of the sound which will be played when the applet starts.

Loop : Check “ Loop ” to loop the onload sound. This sound will be terminated only when the browser quits the current page.