Redistributable File List for Microsoft(R) Visual J++(TM), Version 1.1 Copyright (C) Microsoft Corporation 1997

This document identifies the files that you may redistribute with your application developed using Visual J++. The conditions under which you may or may not redistribute these files are described in the separate License Agreement included in the Visual J++ Version 1.1 product.

The redistributable files are located in the \DevStudio\REDIST, directory on the Visual J++ 1.1 CD-ROM, unless otherwise noted. These files are not installed by Visual J++ Setup in a distinct \DevStudio\REDIST directory on your hard disk. Visual J++ Setup may install some of these files in your Windows System directory, depending on which Setup options you choose. When you redistribute any of these files, you should copy them from the Visual J++ 1.1 CD-ROM to your own distribution disk image, rather than from your hard disk, to make sure you are redistributing the correct version of the files.

Categories of Redistributable Files

1. ODBC (Open Database Connectivity) Files
2. DAO (Data Access Objects) Files

6. General Redistribution Information

Version Checking of Redistributable Files

Because other applications may redistribute earlier or later versions of the same files as redistributed with your application, it is important that you install newer versions of the files on top of older versions on your user's system, but not older versions on top of new versions. Typically, version checking is the responsibility of your setup program. If you do not have a setup program for your main application, then you must accomplish the version checking manually when installing the redistributable files on your user's system.

The programmatic technique for version checking varies, depending on which category of file you are redistributing. In each of the following sections, the version checking technique is described for each category of files. Briefly, the version checking techniques are as follows:

For the ODBC files, see Part 3 Installing and Configuring ODBC Software, in the Programmer's Reference at :<http://www.microsoft.com/odbc/docs/default.htm>

These files may not be redistributed.

ctl3d32.dll	3D controls support--Windows NT
regsvr32.exe	DLL Registration Utility
vbscript.dll	VBScript DLL
stdole2.tlb	OLE Type Library
12520437.cpx	Code page translator
12520850.cpx	Code page translator

Compatibility with Windows 95

For information on making your application Windows 95 compliant, please refer to the section "Adding Windows 95 Compliance" in the "Tutorials" section of the Visual J++ Books Online.
