

Fir needles are flat and have rounded, resin covered, clustered (3) terminal buds. They commonly have white lines of stomata on the lower side. Needles can live up to 20 years.