

Female conelets are often terminal and found throughout the tree.
Male conelets are in clusters at the base of new growth and scattered throughout the tree.