

Do you have the latest version? Normally we send out update notices (via email) to all registered users when a new version is released, however, it's best to occasionally check our ftp site and web page for the latest version. See the chapter "Where is TimeSlice" for our ftp and web page address.