

The Cube for Windows   Copyright 1993   KillTime Software

Thank you for trying the distribution copy of The Cube for Windows. This game is being distributed as shareware, the unique concept that lets you, the customer, try it before you buy it and allows programmers to sell their software to those who have used and enjoyed them at a cost much below the typical retail market. You are encouraged to pass this game along to others provided you do so in its entirety and include its document file. This game may be bundled together with other vendor's software or hardware for distribution. If you wish to continue using this game, you are expected to pay for it. Registered copies are $15.00. Below is a list of other puzzle games available from KillTime Software. Puzzle Pack for DOS includes the five DOS puzzle games. Puzzle Pack for Windows includes the four Window puzzle games. Puzzle Pack Plus includes the five DOS puzzle games and the four Window puzzle games. Wholesale and licensing inquires welcomed.
