

CONDITION RED

The game:

Condition: RED

The mission:

Oh no! The bad guys are trying to invade your city, guess what?

It's up to you to stop them.

(By shooting them, and not making nice cups of tea and scones)

The controls:

Use the mouse to aim your turret.

Press fire to shoot, for every shot you use some ammo.

If your base is destroyed or if you run out of ammo then you can't shoot.

If all your cities are destroyed then the game is over and you have lost.

To complete a level shoot all the missiles.

If you complete all the levels and then destroy the final guardian (by shooting it) you have won.
