

TOYLAND

Welcome to Toyland, in this game you control the cool skate dude who's job it is to keep the mice safe from the bouncing purple ball, and at the same time try to knock off as many toys from the shelves before all the mice get hit.

The game is based on the old classic "breakout" and is intended to give you an easy start into game creating with Klik & Play. Try building up a similar game from scratch, it's simple if you follow the guidelines inside the manual. As you get better you can add extra levels - why not make a level with pictures of your friends?

Have fun and watch your head!
