

RACING LINE

The aim of the game is to destroy your opponent. To destroy your opponent there are several strategies:

Drive up to your opponent and press shoot rapidly, hoping that:

- a) all your shots are on target
- b) your opponent doesn't press shoot faster than you
- c) your opponent doesn't move out the way
- d) your opponent hasn't gathered any power-ups

Drive around the game area taking pot shots at your opponent, whilst avoiding your opponents' shots.

Drive around the game area and collect power-ups thus having an advantage over your opponent.

At random intervals a power-up (a circle with the letter P in it) will float around the game area (where you drive). Gathering this power-up will give you ten fast shots, skillful use of these shots will spell imminent destruction for your opponent.

The strength bars at the bottom of the screen illustrate the remaining strength for each player. A warning sound will play when your strength is so low a that a single shot will destroy your vehicle.
