DISKFREE displays the space statistics for all hard disks found in the system. The display is updated at 1 second intervals, during which the space currently available is compared to the space available at the last update. If the space has increased or decreased, then a '+' or '-' is appended to the line.

DISKFREE 1.1, released October 17, 1990, supports Windows 3.0.

DISKFREE is shareware. It may be copied and distributed freely, provided no fee is charged for such copies. No fee is required for the use of DISKFREE, but if you send $10.00 to the author you will receive:

- (a) A complimentary one year subscription to the author's bulletin board (normally $25.00), and
- (b) Automatic notification of future Windows software written by the author of DISKFREE (of which there will be a lot!)

Your comments, suggestions, and contributions are always welcome. If there is a Windows program you'd like to see, let me know!
