

68 Aborting from the Custom Environment

Written by Jud Spencer

Published Date March 2, 1988

Use Option-F to abort from the custom environment

If you ever find yourself at a splash screen in the custom environment with no active menus, you can drop back into the User environment by pressing option - F with the caps-lock key up. This will prevent you from having to reboot.

