File Sharing Toggle 1.0

File Sharing Toggle ©1992 by Adam Stein. All Rights Reserved.

File Sharing Toggle 1.0 is a set of two Macintosh applications that turn File Sharing On and Off. Normally, Macintosh users have two choices—to leave File Sharing on permanently, or to turn it on and off via the Sharing Setup Control Panel.

Leaving File Sharing on permanently wastes memory, slows down your Mac, and makes you wonder if your Mac has a hangover when it starts up. It also prevents you from renaming and unmounting drives—an especially serious problem when using removeable media.

Using the Sharing Setup Control Panel works fine, but it's kind of annoying to have to keep on opening a Control Panel just to turn File Sharing on and off.

The solution is the File Sharing Toggle package. It contains two applications, named File Sharing On and File Sharing Off. You can then just double-click on either one to turn File Sharing on or off.

Contents of the Package

- The File Sharing On application.
- The File Sharing Off application.
- The "File Sharing Toggle Read Me!" file is this document.
- The "File Sharing Toggle Order Form" (in the Order Form Folder) is what you'll use when you register your copy of the program. Just print it out and send it in, along with your check or money order. You can also print the same order form from the program.
- The "800# Ordering Read Me!" file contains instructions on ordering with your credit card.
- The "Blurbs f" folder contains information on other IGS Products.

Distribution

You may freely distribute this version of File Sharing Toggle to anyone and anywhere as long as you include all the files listed above.

Instructions:

To turn file sharing off, double-click on the File Sharing Off application.
To turn file sharing on, double-click on the File Sharing On application.

International users may find that the File Sharing On application does not work. That's because the name of the File Sharing Extension may be different than the U.S. version. Happily, there is an easy fix. If you know how to use ResEdit, just change STR ID 500 to the name of the File Sharing Extension. If you do not know how to use ResEdit, just send me the name of your File Sharing Extension on the registration form. I'll send you back a customized version that will work perfectly on your Macintosh.
