QuickLog© is a unique HyperCard 2.1 stack that is designed to allow the Shortwave Radio Listener to log receptions from any country and station solely with the mouse, never having to touch the keyboard. It provides for the generation of a number of reports, also solely with the use of the mouse, that eliminate the need for the purchase of expensive reference books.