

If you choose Save Normally:

The saved file includes a record of any cutting or pasting you did and of the original location of any material you copied.

The movie plays correctly according to these changes, but the stored file does not include any new or changed material. If you copied segments from other movies, the new movie can be played only if the original movies are on a disk connected to your computer.