The control bar appears at the bottom of every movie. You use it to control how the movie plays, move to any part of the movie, change the viewing size, and control the volume.

You also use the control bar to select parts of a movie that you want to copy or delete.