Software Backup Contents

The Backup agent is controlled by the NEWTWatch Backup application.   It runs in the background and moves files from the local machine to a server.   When the agent is running, an automated icon appears that shows moving files.