

Finding Similar Items

Find Similar command fills in the various Find window settings with data extracted from the item selected. Except for the file size (if the item is a file), information is an exact match. The size fields are set to a 1 Kbyte range around the size of the selected file. All checkboxes are unchecked initially. You check the criteria to use.