

Windowless switch

This box lets you control how Sloop deals with applications that have no open document windows. If this box is checked, then Sloop will switch out of applications that have no open document windows. If it is not checked, then Sloop will not switch.