Cron   Lauches all documents or applications installed on a DragStrip strip called "Cron Strip" once every hour.   This application must remain open for   it to work properly.   The script can be easily modified to launch items installed on another strip.