

FREE LEVELS

Here's a Christmas gift from the Incubation folks at Blue Byte. The XMAS level (for the Instant Action feature) will put your turn-based skills to the test. Don't expect any pretty reindeer or a jolly Saint Nick, just boatloads of mad, man-hungry Scay'Ger ready to rip you to shreds.

The level takes place in a large hall with 5 ramps, lots of elevators, and 7 levers you need to turn off. But that's only the half of it. The other part of the mission is to destroy all the Scay'Ger, which isn't going to be easy. The level's design was based on comments and feedback from Incubation fanatics who wanted a real challenge. So expect plenty of Ee'Ther, a neverending supply of Ray'Coo, and lots of action. If you're up to the challenge, you have only your wits and 2000 equipment points at your disposal. Good luck, and save often!

Stratagem level

Ray'Ther and Gore'Ther have overrun the Power Station. It's up to you to wipe 'em all out or fight your way into the northern room.

Larynx level

Scay'Ger are pouring out of the air ducts. Destroy the air ducts before you become a Scay'Ger snack.

Embolus level

Only a door stands between you and your objective. Of course, on the other side of this door are several bloodthirsty Scay'Ger ready to rip you to shreds.

Debaser level

The Slaughterhouse might be a better name for this mission; the hall is crawling with Scay'Ger. You'll have to move fast and use your ammo wisely if you want to make it out alive.

Capstanio level

Switches, Platforms and Scay'Ger, Oh My! Master all three to avoid ending this mission as an oozing red clump of flesh.

Sentinel level

It seems your persistent slaughter of the Scay'Ger has begun to upset them. Battle your way through a gauntlet of cranky mutants to the lookout post.
