

Cast members are the raw media elements of a movie. Sprites are objects you work with on the Stage and in the Score to control when, where, and how cast member media appears in a movie.