

Remember, cast members are the raw media. They appear only in the Cast window. Sprites are the objects you work with on Stage and in the Score to control when, where and how cast member media appears in the movie.

For more information about Cast members and Sprites, see Chapter Two, "Understanding Director Basics", in Using Director.