- The contains operator checks whether a string is contained in another string.

To use the example, first type a string in the Test field. Director assigns this string to the field cast member Test. If you want, click the button at the upper