Use the Preceding and Following Cast Members controls to view your images in context with other images in the Paint window.   This is useful for checking the alignment of multiple images or to see how an animation progresses.