Registered users will be advised of updates (via Email), and gain preferential treatment when dealing with bugs reports and suggestions, and will additionally provide an incentive for me to continue development.

For registration send the following form by mail or email to the author, the address is listed at the end of this chapter. For site licences of more than 15 copies, or use with 4D Server with 15 or more clients, please contact the author for more information.
You do not need to register if you include Speech Pack in a non-commercial demo data-base, but you do need to contact the author for permission to distribute Speech Pack with the data-base.

I understand that receipt of payment will be acknowledged. I will receive one significant upgrade, if there is one, free of charge, together with upgrade notices. I will also receive a desciption on how to disable the spoken shareware reminder.
