

Availability and Pricing

InterNews™, a Macintosh interface to the Internet world of Usenet News, is available free of charge to users at educational and non-profit institutions. The latest version of InterNews is available via Internet FTP in the directory /pub/mac of the host ftp.dartmouth.edu.

Dartmouth College requests that commercial and government sites purchase a license for the use of InterNews at the fee schedule and under the terms listed below. InterNews licenses may be purchased in units of 1, 10, or 100, or for an unlimited number of users.

Pricing:

$25 for a single-copy license

$200 for a 10-user pack

$1,000 for a 100-user pack

$5,000 for an unlimited number of users

License packs can be purchased in combination. For example, a license for 20 users would cost $400 (2 times $200) and a license for 220 users would cost $2,400 (2 times $1,000, plus 2 times $200).

Single-copy Agreement

Dartmouth College grants the single-copy purchaser a nonexclusive, nontransferable right to run InterNews 1.0 (and any minor updates to InterNews 1.0 that may be developed, where Dartmouth College will determine which updates are minor) on any single computer, as long as only one copy of the program is running at one time. Dartmouth College will make any minor updates available to the purchaser via Internet FTP, and will offer the purchaser the opportunity to license any major updates that may be developed.

Dartmouth College provides InterNews 1.0 “AS IS,” without any warranty or promise of technical support. Dartmouth College disclaims any liability of any kind for any damages whatsoever resulting from the use of InterNews.
