

To change existing entries, just double click the respective entry in the daily overview or in the todo list. Alternatively you can as well just click onto an entry and choose "Input" from the "View" menu instead.

The central input window will be displayed preset already with the data of the clicked entry