After a data file is opened you can view its contents in the daily overview by choosing "Day" from the "View" menu. The daily overview shows all entries of one day in chronological order and grouped in the time intervals chosen through SelfControl's preferences window.