The list on the right side represents the kind of items that BeHierarchic can group together.

The sub menu on the left side represents the actual groups and their relative ordering used by BeHierarchic to build the menus.

Simply click and drag items from one list to another.