elcome to Extension Overload 5.0! Extension Overload is your all round extension & control panel management solution. It offers detail information of 2950 extensions and control panels in your system. It also lets you activate and deactivate them, so that you can always easily tailor your system to your current requirements. In addition, Extension Overload includes a useful collection of helpful information and tidbits.

Extension Overload Features

* Allows you to enableand disable you extensions and control panels on the fly without going to the Extensions or Control Panels folders.

* Provide detailed descriptions of 2950 extensions and control panels, both from Apple and from other companies.

* Covers extensions and control panels from System 7, 7.5, 7.6, Mac OS 8, 8.1, 8.5, 8.6, 9.0 and 9.0.4, iMac, G3 and G4.

* Searching for a particular extensions or control panels within the database can be done either by name or description.

* Searchable system error codes to help make your troubleshooting process easier and faster.

* Generate reports to keep track of your extensions and control panels.

* Extension Overload wiill warm user if ObjectSupportLib was found in Mac OS 8, 8.5, 8.6 and 9. User will be able to click 'Delete' to Delete. 'Disable' to Disable' and 'Do nothing'.

* A Tidbits menu that contains interesting tidbits of information including:

- What is an extension, control panel, shared library?

- Tips to speed up your Macintosh.

- Easter eggs (little gimmicks hidden somewhere in the software).

- A guide on how to get software updates.