Factory defaults

If you choose Factory from the main preferences dialog box, all the settings in that box will change to the default settings that come with Sloop. To use these settings, press the Save button or save your preferences when quitting the Sloop Rudder.

If you want to go back to the previously saved settings, use the Revert button.