

Licensing Info

Cookie Cutter is distributed as freeware. This means you can freely use it on as many machines as you like, and distribute it to anyone who wants it as long as you distribute the whole thing (including this ReadMe). CD-ROM publishers should contact me at <sbarnham@ibl.bm> for permission before distributing Cookie Cutter on CD.

Cookie Cutter may NOT be distributed on any service operated by Microsoft (such as MSN if it isn't defunct yet).

If you have any comments, suggestions, or bug reports relating to Cookie Cutter, I'm at <sbarnham@ibl.bm>. The latest version of Cookie Cutter, and other products if I get round to writing them, can be found on the Info-Mac archive or on my web site at:

<<http://www.geocities.com/SiliconValley/2784>>

Needless to say, there is no warranty whatsoever for Cookie Cutter. If it breaks things, starts wars, brings down mega corporations, causes social (or indeed dental) decay, causes premature balding, asthmatic reactions, or heart problems, you're on your own because it's not my fault!

No Microsoft products were using in making, documenting, or distributing Cookie Cutter. My Mac is a Microsoft-free zone.

If you have Netscape running, you can click on either of the buttons below and cool things will happen.
