The Panels menu gives you quick access to the control panels listed in the menu. Selecting one of the menu options will open that control panel in the Finder and you will be switched to the Finder layer. The Finder must be running to use these commands.