

User Information Editor...

User Name - This is the name of the User (Addressee). Example: Mike Lininger

InterNet ID: This is an internet address for the user, if available. Example: To: Mike.Lininger@cmhgate.fidonet.org

Zone - This is the Zone Number where the user is located. Example: 1

Net - This is the Net Number where the user is located. Example: 226

Node - This is the Node Number where the user is located. Example 20

Point # - This is the Private Point Number of the user. Example 21

Auto Address to UUCP/Internet - Checking this Box will instruct CP to automatically insert the internet address into messages as the post window opens up, if the message is addressed to the this user.

User (Drop Down Menu) - Use this menu to select a specific User to modify. Note: remember if a change is made be sure to click the Update button before clicking the Done button; otherwise the changes will not be remembered.

Delete Button - Click on this button to delete the current User.

Update Button - Click on this button to make any changes to the User permanent. Note: If a change is made and the Update button is not clicked before the Done button, the changes will not be remembered.

New Button - Click on this button to take the current information and make it into a new User.

Done Button - Click on this button to Exit the User Editor.

Prev Button - Click on this button to display the PREVIOUS User. Note: remember if a change is made be sure to click the Update, or the change will not be remembered.

Next Button - Click on this button to display the NEXT User. Note: remember if a change is made be sure to click the Update button, or the change will not be remembered.

Note - Click on this button to enter any special information you wish to remember about this User.