

This export field field (usually hidden) contains data gathered from the primary or secondary address fields, phone and vendor i.d. fields. This data is copied to the clipboard when using the open application button.

You can paste or type data here too.