

In the phone field there is enough room to enter four telephone numbers that are over 20 digits long. The telephone buttons dial the numbers entered on the line directly to their right.