

The export field button shows the export field (usually hidden) which contains data gathered from the primary or secondary address fields, phone and vendor i.d. fields. This data is copied to the clipboard when using the open application button.